

WIDER CHURCH CONNECTIONS

United Church of Christ:

Listed here are Associations, Conferences, Councils, or other denominational settings in which church members participate:

Cranberry Council
Area Protestant Services
Lenten service
Choir festival

Association, conference, or other denominational settings in which our church expects the leader we are now seeking to participate:

UCC participation
Cranberry Council participation

Lay leaders of our church consciously identify with the United Church of Christ as indicated below:

closely moderately nominally other

Ecumenical and Interfaith Activities

During the last three years, our church has participated in ecumenical and interfaith activities in the following ways:

Lenten suppers and services in conjunction with other churches of the Cranberry Council.
Thanksgiving Ecumenical Service
Cranberry Council Choir Festival

Our church expects the pastor we are now seeking to participate in ecumenical and interfaith activities”

We would hope that our new minister would represent our church on the Cranberry Council and, perhaps, work with local and area clergy to provide additional ecumenical activities.